

Grove House

Grove House has just opened its doors for event bookings and is set to be the most exciting new venue in South West London!

This stunning Grade II listed Georgian house is set in 4 acres of landscaped grounds overlooking a lake and a lily pond. This flexible venue is able to accommodate conferences, wedding reception, product launches, exhibitions, fashion shows and marquees - the possibilities are endless!

Grove House, which was built by James Wyatt in 1792, boasts beautifully decorated rooms with chandeliers and wooden paneling. Drinks receptions can be taken in the Terrace Room where guests can wonder outside onto a covered terrace and through the gardens. The grand Portrait Room is ideal for dinner dances and is complete with a stage and suitable floor for dancing.
