

PUBLIC HISTORIES, PAST & PRESENT

A one-day workshop on Saturday 28 February 2009

Terrace Rooms A & B, (Howard 001-2), Digby Stuart College, Roehampton University

- 9.15-9.45 Registration
- 9.45-10.00 Welcome and Introduction,
Cornelie Usborne (Director, Centre for Research in History and Theory) and John Tosh (Roehampton)
- 10.00-11.00 Panel 1: European contrasts
Wendy Bracewell (SSEES) on the role of the historian in former Yugoslavia
Sabine Wieber (Roehampton) on the National Gallery in Berlin
- 11.00-11.30 Coffee
- 11.30-12.30 Panel 2: Historians and policy-making in Britain
Alastair J. Reid (Cambridge) and Abigail Wills (Oxford) offer an evaluation of the History & Policy website (historyandpolicy.org)
- 12.30-1.30 Lunch
- 1.30-2.30 Panel 3: Dimensions of heritage
Geoffrey Cubitt (York) on marking the bicentenary of the abolition of the British slave trade
One other speaker, to be announced
- 2.45-3.45 Panel 4: History in the community
Sally Alexander (Goldsmiths) looks back to the early development of History Workshop
Anna Green (Exeter) examines historians' engagement with oral history
- 3.45-4.15 Tea
- 4.15-5.00 Panel 5: Jill Liddington (Leeds) and John Tosh (Roehampton) lead a closing discussion on 'What next for Public History?'