

MALAYSIA

The University of Roehampton has one of the most diverse international student populations amongst its peers with representatives from over 140 countries around the world. Of the 10,000 total students, approximately 13% are identified as international. The University warmly welcomes a healthy cohort of Malaysian students each year.

Programmes such as BA International Business, MSc International Management and the MBA offered by the Business School are most popular among Malaysian students at Roehampton but Malaysia is represented by many other Departments such as the Department of Life Sciences and Department of Education.
