

CREST Seminar Series 2019/20

Seminars take place in the Richmond Room at Whitelands College, UoR, 6-7pm, unless otherwise stated.

Date	Presenter	Title
Wednesday 16 th October 2019	Jess Deighton Associate Professor of Child Mental Health and Wellbeing, UCL; Director of Innovation Evaluation and Dissemination, Anna Freud National Centre	Involving schools and the community in the prevention and early intervention for children's mental health
Wednesday 13 th November 2019	Jenna Jacob Research Lead Child Outcomes Research Consortium (CORC)	Personalised measurement: using goals to evidence outcomes that are important to young people in mental health settings
Wednesday 11 th December 2019	Dan Michelson Senior Lecturer in Clinical Psychology Academic Director, PRIDE Consulting Clinical Psychologist	"Adolescent mental health in global contexts: Lessons learned from the PRIDE programme in India."
Wednesday 29 th January 2020	Jasmine Childs- Fegredo (UoR)	Yoga-integrated Psychotherapy for emotion dysregulation (YiP)
Wednesday 26 th February 2020	Elaine McCullough Consultant Clinical Psychologist & Amy Mathura (PsychD research student)	Effectiveness of using a neurophysiological psychotherapeutic approach to treating developmental trauma in adopted children
Wednesday 18 th March 2020	Rosie Rizq (UoR) Paul Faulkner (UoR) Gioia Polidori (USC)	'Let's Talk!' Series: 'The place of neuroscience in psychotherapy practice and research'

Wednesday 29 th April 2020	Mick Cooper & Meg Stafford	Ethos – School-based humanistic counselling
1-2pm Wednesday 20 th May 2020	Professor Del Loewenthal	‘Can Photographs be a measure: The use of Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography’
Thursday 18 th June 2020	Professor Anna Seymour (TBC)	The use of self in research: current landscape & future directions
Wednesday in July TBC 2020	(TBC)	PsychD Symposium (tbc)